MUSEUM ANNOUNCES
JURY AND CHANGES
FOR 48th MAY SHOW

Jurors to select the 48th annual MAY SHOW of The Cleveland Museum of Art have been chosen. Judging crafts will be: William Brown, Director of the Penland School of Crafts in North Carolina; Paul Hultberg, enamelist from Pomona, New York; and Robert Sperry, Associate Professor of Ceramics at the University of Washington in Seattle. Judging the paintings, graphic arts and sculpture will be: Thomas C. Colt, Jr., Director of the Dayton Art Institute in Ohio; the painter, Jimmy Ernst, of New Canaan, Connecticut; and Edward Higgins, a sculptor from Easton, Pennsylvania. Nathan Lyons, Associate Director of the George Eastman House in Rochester, New York, will select the photographs.

Procedural changes for the MAY SHOW include:

- 1) This year, artists must deliver (either in person or by mail) entry blanks and fees together with their entries. Previously the blanks and the entries were received separately. The period of delivery for 1966 will last one week --- from Saturday, February 26 through Saturday, March 5 (9 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. if brought in person).
- 2) Jurying has been modified so that instead of operating on a "consensus" basis, each juror now will select his own "show" which will be combined with the two selected by the other jurors. Thus, there are several "one-man juries." Special Jury Mentions will be awarded by unanimous vote, although each juror may cite up to three Jury Mentions for works he strongly feels deserve an award but about which the others do not agree.
- 3) The categories under which an artist may enter his work have been consolidated into six: these are painting, sculpture, graphics, photography, crafts and MAY SHOW poster design. Originally there were twelve categories.
- 4) Artists were formerly allowed a maximum of six entries. Entries have now been reduced to three per artist.

Entry blanks for eligible artists (those who live, work or were born in Cuyahoga County or who live in any one of the other thirteen original counties of the Western Reserve) are now available at the following locations:
